

Cooperative Operation of this Pacific Northwest Seismograph Network

1434-HQ-AG-01937

University of Washington
S.D. Malone, R.S. Crosson and A.I. Qmar
Geophysics Program
P.O. Box 351650
Seattle, WA 98195-1650

Abstract and Nontechnical Summary

This is the final technical report for the USGS Joint Operating Agreement 1434-HQ-98-AG-01937 "Pacific Northwest Seismograph Network (PNSN) Operations" This agreement covered network operations objective of out work under this operating agreement was to gather seismic data, and to analyze and interpret them for use in evaluation of seismic and volcanic hazards in Washington and Oregon. This report includes and update on recent changes in our public information program, and summary of 2000 seismicity. During 2000,10 earthquake were reported felt west of the Cascade in Washington, ranging in magnitude from 1.2 to 3.6 Two earthquakes were reported felt west of the Cascades in Washington, ranging in magnitude from 2.5 to 4.1.